The Dylan Stork Youth Ambassador Award

During the summer of 2005, Blackfalds Town Council was made aware of an exceptional youth in the community. Dylan Stork was named Champion Child for the Stollery Children's Hospital and during this time Dylan was fortunate to meet many prestigious individuals. Dylan met with the Prime Minister, Montel Williams, the Premier and had dinner with the Queen. In December 2005 the Lacombe Globe ran a story on Dylan that outlined his challenges and accomplishments.

When Council learned of Dylan's success, it was suggested that the Town recognize his contributions as a representative of the Town of Blackfalds. After meeting with Dylan and learning more about his phenomenal story it was decided that an award be created to acknowledge outstanding youth in our community. Dylan was honored to know that the Town would continue with The Dylan Stork Youth Ambassador Award. In 2006 Dylan was the recipient of the award. The award recipient will receive a $250.00 cheque to be used preferably for educational and developmental activities.
